6125 – The new IMDS Release 15.0

The recently introduced IMDS Release 14.4 and upcoming IMDS Release 15.0, which will be launched in July 2025, offer several new functions. Learn about the latest features and functions of the IMDS to optimize its use in your company.

Objectives

To become familiar with the extended standard check (SC90) in the IMDS and the associated warning message for materials classification 8.x (E/E). To understand the MFA method introduced with Release 14.5 to enhance the security of the login process. To learn how to manage the new user privileges in MDSs. To know the difference between marking dynamic SVHCs (DS) in your supply chain MDSs and in the published MDSs (PDS). To become familiar with the additional substance groups for medium-chain chlorinated paraffins (MCCPs) and Tris(nonylphenyl)phosphite (TNPP) that will be introduced in the Chemistry Manager. To learn how to store further basic substance information and information on hazard statements in the IMDS. To become familiar with the planned option to report the carbon footprint of a product at component, semi-component, and material level based on the Catena-X PCF Rulebook as a foundation in the IMDS.
